Stories of Impact

At each Christmas Store, dignity and generosity came to life as families felt supported and volunteers reflected the power of faith, community, and love in action.

Generosity in Gratitude

Marisol, a single mother shopping on a very limited budget, expected to spend every dollar she had on gifts. Because the store was affordable, she had $11 left and chose to donate it back to Outreach—an act of generosity rooted in gratitude.

Comfort Through Prayer

Elena, typically guarded and reserved, sat in the hospitality room after shopping and began to share the heavy emotions she had been carrying. She opened up about her father's cancer diagnosis and asked for prayer, finding comfort in a space where she felt safe and supported.

Shopper Quote

"I came to shop for gifts for my kids, but the store was actually a big gift for me."

Volunteer Quote

"It was incredible to watch generosity spark generosity. We will absolutely be back next year."
